

Another Mom

©2009 Imagicom

When you came into my life a long time ago, I was so very young and tender, and not ready or willing to let my mom go.

With courage and patience, you filled a void that needed to be closed. Though I could not understand your ways, your intentions were the best for me, while your purpose was never disclosed.

But if the Lord had not sent you into my life, who knows how "much more" trouble I would have caused, leading to all our struggles and strife.

Looking back over the years, I finally appreciate all that you have done out of pure unconditional love, and am truly sorry for causing you so many tears.

*For I always knew you never meant to be a "replacement" mom, I now realize despite no blood between us, you always have been and always will be,
..... "another" mom.*
