

It's No Wonder

*When I look into Samantha's eyes,
I see the softness of her soul.*

*When I listen to Samantha's voice,
I hear the sincerity of her mind.*

*When I touch Samantha's hands,
I feel the tenderness of her heart.*

*When I relate to Samantha's personality,
I experience the unconditionality of her love.*

*When I think of how special Samantha is to me,
I'll always think of her father.*

I thank God every time I look at Samantha's face, and it's no wonder...

*for the same person who brought her into this world is my friend, my brother...
and for that, it's a better place.*
